

The Ben Franklin Honor Society of Printing Industries of America

The Ben Franklin Honor Society of the Printing Industries of America was founded on November 12, 2005 at San Francisco, California, by the consolidation of two established honor societies—The Ash Khan Society of PIA, and The Society of Fellows of GATF. Both societies brought down their gavels for the last time to form the new Society.

Officers for the new honor society:

Robert E. Murphy, Chairman

Kent Martin, Vice Chairman

William Evans, Secretary

Ted C. Ringman, Treasurer

Members at Large:

Jerry B. Williamson, Harold L. Holden, Jr., and James E. Herbst

Witnessing Members:

Pete Armstrong

David F. Bacon

Joseph A. Becker

John R. Berthelsen

Tom E. Brinkman, Sr.

Robert A. Brown

Wendell Burns

James Clark

Regis J. Delmontagne

Charles L. Dine

Dean Flowers

Steven T. Fullerton

A. John Geis

(Immediate Past SOF Chair)

John Green

Arnold Greenfield

Raymond M. Hartman

Thomas H. Hawkins III

James Herbst

Harold L. Holden, Jr.

Susan Kinney

Larry Kroll

Douglas M. Laidlaw, Sr.

David Langhans

Michael A. Marcian, Sr.

Kent Martin

James H. Mayes

Ronald R. Meredith

Alfred W. Merkel

(Immediate Past AKS King Khan)

Robert E. Murphy

Martin J. Paul

Charles D. Porter

Hall Provence III

Herbert H. Provence, Jr.

James E. (Jack) Pruitt

Z.A. (Zeke) Prust

Thomas W. Reeves

Ted Ringman

George Ryan

Herbert "Skip" Sayers

Robert L. Schaefer

Jim Thomason

Charles D. "Buddy" Vaughan

Boyer Veitch

Lawrence C. Warter

Howard C. "Buzz" Webber, Jr.

Mrs. Willy Wilkins

Warren D. Wilkins

John C. Wurst